Chapter 11

Case No. 08-13555 (SCC)

Adv. Proc. No. _____

ADVERSARY COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. (“LBHI”), the Plan Administrator under the Modified Third Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. and Its Affiliated Debtors (the “Plan”), for its Complaint against Defendants iMortgage.com, Inc. (“Defendant-Seller”) and loanDepot.com, LLC (“Defendant-Successor”, together with Defendant-Seller, “Defendants”) alleges upon knowledge as to itself and its own conduct, and upon information and belief as to all other matters, as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. LBHI seeks to enforce its right to contractual indemnification for liabilities, losses, damages, claims, judgments and any other costs, fees and expenses LBHI incurred as a result of Defendant-Seller’s sale of defective mortgage loans in breach of Defendant-Seller’s representations, warranties, obligations, and/or covenants and/or for which LBHI incurred liability due to Defendant-Seller’s acts, failures to act and/or omissions (the “Defective Loans”).

2. In reliance on Defendants’ promises, covenants, and representations and warranties, LBHI securitized certain loans. In connection with the securitizations, which were marketed and sold to third party investors, LBHI made certain representations and warranties regarding the quality and characteristics of certain of the loans that were coextensive with those made by Defendant-Seller. LBHI retained the right to seek indemnification from Defendants in the event it became liable for certain indemnification events. After the trustees for hundreds of trusts (the “RMBS Trustees”) allegedly discovered that the mortgage loans breached certain of those representations and warranties, the RMBS Trustees filed claims in LBHI’s bankruptcy case for losses suffered on certain loans. On March 15, 2018, this Court entered the Order Estimating Allowed Claim Pursuant to RMBS Settlement, dated March 15, 2018 (ECF No. 57785) (the “RMBS Order”) resolving the majority of the claims. LBHI also settled several other RMBS

Trustee claims as permitted by the Plan.¹

3. By this action, LBHI seeks to recover money damages from Defendants for the indemnification claims.

PARTIES

4. On September 15, 2008, Plaintiff LBHI commenced with this Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. LBHI is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in New York, New York.

5. Defendant-Seller is an entity that, at all times relevant, was organized in and did business within the United States. Defendant-Successor is an entity that is organized in and does business within the United States.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This adversary proceeding is commenced pursuant to Rules 7001 and 7003 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”).

7. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction to consider and determine this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and as the matter has a close nexus with the Plan, which was confirmed by Order of the Bankruptcy Court, dated December 6, 2011 (the “Confirmation Order”), and became effective on March 6, 2012. The Court has retained post-confirmation jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to section 14.1 of the Plan and paragraph 77 of the Confirmation Order.

8. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a), 1391, 1408, and 1409 because the claims arise out of pre-petition contracts and are asserted as part of the administration of the estate as set forth in the Plan, and because a substantial part of the acts or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred within the district, including the underlying agreements and loan transactions, and because the loss was suffered within the district.

9. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants under Rule 7004(f) of the Bankruptcy Rules. In addition, this Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because, at all times relevant, Defendants were organized in and did business within the United States, and because the transactions giving rise to this controversy occurred in the United States.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

10. Prior to commencement of these cases, LBHI engaged in the purchase and sale of mortgage loans directly or through affiliates, including Lehman Brothers Bank, FSB ("LBB"), then securitized the loans, which were then marketed and sold to third party investors.

11. At all relevant times, Defendant-Seller engaged in mortgage origination, as well as the sale of mortgage loans on the secondary market to entities such as LBB and LBHI.

A. The Governing Agreements

12. This dispute arises out of Defendant-Seller's sale of residential mortgage loans to LBHI's assignor, LBB, under one Loan Purchase Agreement with LBB (the "LPA").²

13. The date of the relevant LPA is listed in Exhibit A hereto.

14. The LPA specifically incorporates the terms and conditions of the Seller's Guide of loan administrator, Aurora Loan Services LLC (the "Seller's Guide," together with the LPA, "Agreements") which sets forth additional duties and obligations of Defendant-Seller.³ The

² Although the language of certain sections referenced throughout this Complaint may vary slightly from LPA to LPA, it is generally consistent in all material respects.

Seller's Guide in its entirety is valid and binding on Defendant-Seller.

15. The Agreements set forth the duties and obligations of the parties with respect to the purchase and sale of mortgage loans, including but not limited to purchase price, delivery, and conveyance of the mortgage loans and mortgage loan documents.

16. The Agreements also set forth Defendant-Seller's duties and obligations regarding underwriting; representations and warranties concerning the parties and individual mortgage loans purchased, sold; and Defendant-Seller's indemnification obligations.

17. Pursuant to the Agreements, Defendant-Seller sold Defective Loans to LBB that resulted in LBHI being exposed to and incurring liability, as described further below.

18. The parties agreed that Defendant-Seller's obligations would extend to any subsequent purchasers and/or assignees, such as, in this case, LBHI. The Seller's Guide defines the "Purchaser" as LBB and, among others, its "successors and/or assigns." See Seller's Guide § 8.

19. In conjunction with the sale by LBB to LBHI of the loans, LBB assigned to LBHI all of its rights and remedies under the Agreements pertaining to the loans.

20. Further, the Seller's Guide provides that LBHI, as a subsequent holder of any mortgage loan, "shall be a third party beneficiary" of the LPA. See Seller's Guide § 711.

B. Defendant-Seller's Representations Under the LPA

21. Accordingly, LBHI as the "assignee" and third-party beneficiary of the Agreements, and as "subsequent holder" of the loans, is entitled to all the benefits of the Agreements, including the right to contractual indemnification for Defective Loans.

22. With respect to each of the loans sold to LBHI (as, among other things, LBB's assignee) under the LPA, Defendant-Seller made a number of representations, warranties, and covenants concerning the quality, characteristics, and underwriting of the mortgage loans; the property securing the mortgage loans; and the borrowers.

23. Specific examples of Defendant-Seller's representations, warranties and covenants include, but are not limited to, the following:

No document, report or material furnished to Purchaser in any Mortgage Loan File or related to any Mortgage Loan (including, without limitation, the Mortgagor's application for the Mortgage Loan executed by the Mortgagor), was falsified or contains any untrue statement of fact or omits to state a fact necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading. Seller's Guide § 703(1).

Seller . . . has duly and faithfully complied with and will continue to comply with: (i) all applicable laws, rules, regulations, decrees, pronouncements, directives, orders and contractual requirements with respect to the origination, closing, underwriting, processing and servicing of each Mortgage Loan Seller's Guide § 703(8).

The documents, instruments and agreements submitted for loan underwriting were not falsified and contain no untrue statement of material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the information and statements therein not misleading. No fraud was committed in connection with the origination of the Mortgage Loan. The Seller has reviewed all of the documents constituting the Mortgage Loan File and has made such inquiries as it deems necessary to make and confirm the accuracy of the representations set forth herein. Seller's Guide § 703(12).

There is no default, breach, violation or event of acceleration existing under the Mortgage or the Note and, no event has occurred or condition exists that, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach, violation or event of acceleration and neither Seller nor its predecessors has waived any default, breach, violation or event of acceleration. Seller's Guide § 703(18).

The Mortgage Loan has been originated and processed by Seller or Seller's correspondent in accordance with, and conforms with, the terms of this Seller's Guide and the Loan Purchase Agreement, and the Mortgage Loan has been underwritten in accordance with Underwriting Guidelines in effect as of the date of the Delivery Commitment applicable to the Mortgage Loan. The Mortgage Loan complies with all the requirements of the related Program Profile applicable to such Mortgage Loan Seller's Guide § 703(21).

The Mortgaged Property is lawfully occupied under applicable law, unless properly disclosed to Purchaser. All inspections, licenses and certificates required to be made or issued with respect to all occupied portions of the Mortgaged Property, or with respect to the use and occupancy of the same (including, without limitation, certificates of occupancy and fire underwriting certificates), have been made or obtained by Seller or Seller's correspondent from the appropriate authorities. The Mortgagor represented at the time of origination of the Mortgage Loan that the Mortgagor would occupy the Mortgaged Property as the Mortgagor's primary residence, if applicable. Seller's Guide § 703(24).

Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Seller's Guide or the Loan Purchase Agreement, Seller hereby represents and warrants that all appraisals and other forms of real estate valuation conducted in connection with each Mortgage Loan comply with applicable federal and state law, including without limitation, the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989 as applicable, and the requirements of Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac and the Seller's Guide and were conducted and delivered prior to approval of the Mortgage Loan application by either (i) in the case of an appraisal, by a qualified appraiser, duly appointed by the Seller, or (ii) a valuation method meeting the requirements of the Seller's Guide. The fair market value of the Mortgaged Property as indicated by the property appraisal or valuation is materially accurate. Any appraiser, inspector or other real estate professional engaged in the valuation of the Mortgaged Property has no interest, direct or indirect, in the Mortgaged Property or in any security thereof. The compensation of any appraiser, inspector or other real estate professional engaged in the valuation of the Mortgaged Property was not affected by the approval or disapproval of the Mortgage Loan. Seller's Guide § 703(36).

24. To the extent Defendant-Seller was also the underwriter of certain loans as permitted under the Seller's Guide or other applicable agreements, Defendant-Seller additionally represented, warranted and covenanted in Section 717(1) of the Seller's Guide that with respect to such loans:

All underwriting performed by Seller hereunder shall be in strict compliance with the underwriting guidelines and product descriptions contained in the Seller's Guide and such other guidelines and requirements as may be provided to Seller in writing from time to time.

25. Defendant-Seller represented and/or warranted that it had the ability to perform its obligations under, and satisfy all requirements of, the LPA. See Seller's Guide § 702(5).

26. LBHI (as, among other things, LBB's assignee) relied upon the representations and warranties contained in the Agreements in purchasing the loans. Specifically, Section 701 of the Seller's Guide provides that:

Seller acknowledges that Mortgage Loans are purchased in reliance upon: (i) the truth and accuracy of Seller's representations and warranties set forth in the Loan Purchase Agreement and this Seller's Guide, each of which representations and warranties relates to a matter material to such purchase; and (ii) Seller's compliance with each of the agreements, requirements, terms, covenants and conditions set forth in the Loan Purchase Agreement and this Seller's Guide.

C. Defendant-Seller's Indemnification Obligation Under the Agreements

27. Defendant-Seller agreed to indemnify LBHI (as, among other things, LBB's assignee) from liabilities, claims, judgments, losses and expenses it might sustain as a result of the Defective Loans, including attorneys' fees. Section 711 of the Seller's Guide, entitled "Indemnification and Third Party Claims," provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

In addition to any repurchase and cure obligations of Seller, . . . Seller shall indemnify Purchaser and Purchaser's designee (including, without limitation, any subsequent holder of any Note) from and hold them harmless against all claims, losses, damages, penalties, fines, claims, forfeitures, lawsuits, court costs, reasonable attorney's fees, judgments and any other costs, fees and expenses that the Purchaser may sustain in any way related to or resulting from any act or failure to act or any breach of any warranty, obligation, representation or covenant contained in or made pursuant to this Seller's Guide or the Loan Purchase Agreement by any agent, employee, representative or officer of Seller or Seller's correspondent. In addition to any and all other obligations of Seller hereunder, Seller agrees that it shall pay the reasonable attorney's fees of Purchaser incurred in enforcing Seller's obligations hereunder

D. LBHI's Settlement with RMBS Trustees

28. When LBB acquired loans from Defendant-Seller and others, it typically did not permanently hold those loans on its books. The loans it acquired from Defendant-Seller and other entities, including Defective Loans, were sold to LBHI, and then packaged for securitization.

29. In connection with such securitizations, LBHI relied on information that Defendant-Seller provided to LBB, and it made representations and warranties to the securitization trusts, based, in part, on the representations Defendant-Seller made to LBB.

30. The agreements governing the securitizations provide that the applicable RMBS Trustee may seek contractually defined repurchases of loans in the event certain breaches of representations and warranties occurred.

31. Eventually, the RMBS Trustees discovered breaches of representations, warranties and/or covenants in the Defective Loans.

32. The RMBS Trustees filed claims to recover for losses on the Defective Loans and other loans sold to LBB.

33. Many of the loans at issue in the claims, including the loans in Exhibit B, were alleged to contain defects which caused LBHI to incur losses, judgments, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, and liability to the RMBS Trustees.

34. LBHI was forced to defend against such allegations and eventually settle with the RMBS Trustees.

35. LBHI entered into a settlement agreement with the RMBS Trustees, under which it agreed to seek estimation of the liability underlying the claims in a proceeding before the Bankruptcy Court (the "Estimation Proceeding"). In that Estimation Proceeding, the RMBS Trustees sought damages of over $11.4 billion in damages based upon losses flowing from the at issue loans. After the conclusion of the lengthy and highly contested Estimation Proceeding, for which the LBHI provided notice of that proceeding to the Defendants, the Court entered the RMBS Order allowing a claim in favor of the RMBS Trustees. LBHI also settled several other RMBS Trustee claims in the course of its bankruptcy case as permitted by the Plan.⁴

36. LBHI incurred liability, expenses, costs, losses, judgments, and attorneys' fees to the RMBS Trustees as a result of defects, including but not limited to, defects concerning the quality and characteristics of the loans, the creditworthiness of the borrowers, the characteristics of the collateral, the intended and actual occupancy status of the properties, compliance with appraisal standards and lending regulations, application of underwriting guidelines and the collection and review of the loan application and supporting documentation, and documentation deficiencies.

37. As it concerns Defendants specifically, Exhibit B attached hereto identifies each of the at issue loans in connection with the RMBS Order, and provides a non-exclusive list of the defects alleged by the RMBS Trustees on those loans. LBHI incurred liability, expenses, losses, judgments, attorneys' fees, and other costs as a result of the Defective Loans. A general description of the defects identified in Exhibit B is included in Exhibit C attached hereto.

38. LBHI made representations, warranties, obligations and/or covenants to the RMBS Trustees that were coextensive with those made by Defendant-Seller, and LBHI incurred liability to the RMBS Trustees as a result of Defendant-Seller's acts, failures, omissions, and breaches of its representations, warranties, obligations, and/or covenants.

⁴ See RMBS Trust Settlement Agreement, entered into as of June 25, 2018, between LBHI and Wilmington Trust National Association; Allowed Proof of Claim numbers: 720000, 720001, 720002, 720003, 720004, 720005, 720006, 720007, 720008, 720009, 720010, 720011, 720012, 720013, 720014, 720015, 720016, 720017, 22773.04, 24792, 24810, 720020, 720025, 720021, 720024, 720022, 720023, 720018, 720019.

E. Defendant-Seller's Obligation to Indemnify LBHI

39. Defendant-Seller agreed to indemnify LBHI (as, among other things, LBB's assignee) from liabilities, claims, judgments, losses, attorneys' fees, and expenses it might sustain as a result of the Defective Loans. See Seller's Guide § 711.

40. Pursuant to the Agreements, the laws of the State of New York govern this action.

41. All conditions precedent to bringing this action have been met, occurred or have been waived.

F. Defendant-Successor's Liability for Defendant-Seller's Obligations

42. Defendant-Successor acquired substantially all of Defendant-Seller's assets used in or necessary for the operation of Defendant-Seller's business, including Defendant-Seller's goodwill and intellectual property (the "Acquisition").

43. Defendant-Seller's shareholders and Defendant-Successor entered into a Third Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement in connection with the Acquisition, under which such shareholders were admitted as members and issued units in Defendant-Successor.

44. Defendants sought to dissolve Defendant-Seller after having transferred its assets and business operations to Defendant-Successor.

45. Defendant-Seller no longer had any of the assets, employees, offices, phone lines, websites, business relationships, or credit facilities required to do business, and its business operations promptly ceased following the Acquisition.

46. Defendant-Successor assumed Defendant-Seller's obligations and liabilities for certain agreements and contracts that were ordinarily necessary for the continuation of Defendant-Seller's business operations.

47. Defendant-Successor continued Defendant-Seller's enterprise under the “iMortgage” trade name, including continuation of management, personnel, physical location, intellectual property, and general business operations.

48. Defendant-Successor agreed to make Defendant-Seller’s employees offers of employment on substantially the same terms and conditions on which the employees had been employed by Defendant-Seller prior to the closing of the Acquisition.

49. Defendant-Seller’s President became President of Defendant-Successor’s iMortgage division, Defendant-Seller’s Chief Operating Officer became the Chief Operating Officer of Defendant-Successor’s iMortgage division, and Defendant-Seller’s Executive Vice President of Secondary Marketing became the Executive Vice President of Secondary Marketing of Defendant-Successor’s iMortgage division.

50. Defendant-Successor operates one or more branches at former locations[s], uses one or more of Defendant-Seller’s former fax and phone numbers, and uses Defendant-Seller’s former web address and email domain name.

51. The Acquisition was structured to disadvantage Defendant-Seller’s creditors, such as LBHI, including, for example, lack of adequate cash consideration for Defendant-Seller to satisfy obligations to its creditors.

52. Defendant-Successor is a mere continuation of Defendant-Seller, and Defendant-Successor’s purchase of Defendant-Seller was a de facto merger of the two companies.

53. Defendant-Successor is liable for Defendant-Seller’s indemnification obligations to LBHI because it is Defendant-Seller’s successor.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Contractual Indemnification)

54. LBHI hereby incorporates by reference the allegations set forth above as though fully set forth herein.

55. The Agreements are valid and enforceable contracts that are binding upon Defendants.

56. LBHI and/or LBB has substantially performed all of their obligations under the Agreements.

57. Defendants owe LBHI indemnity for its liabilities, losses, claims, attorneys' fees, judgments and any other costs, fees and expenses as to the Defective Loans.

58. Defendant-Seller's breaches of the Agreements and other acts and/or omissions as to the Defective Loans resulted in LBHI incurring liability and/or losses in an amount to be determined at trial, plus prejudgment interest pursuant to New York law, attorneys' fees, litigation costs, and all other fees and costs provided by the Agreements.

59. Defendant-Successor is jointly and severally liable for LBHI's contractual indemnification claim, as alleged herein, because it is Defendant-Seller's successor

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, LBHI respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment in its favor and against Defendants jointly and severally:

- a) For all damages arising from or relating to Defendant-Seller's obligations under the indemnification provisions of the Agreements, in an amount to be determined at trial;
- b) For recoverable interest;
- c) For the costs and expenses incurred by LBHI in enforcing Defendant-Seller's obligations under the Agreement, including attorneys' fees and costs and any expert witness fees incurred in litigation; and
- d) Providing for such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
